

3 Year Plan - Starting Fall 2018
 (* - required course offered that semester)

Course or Event	Content	Credits
Year One – Fall Semester 2018
*HD 5404 Systems Theory and Family Therapy	Basic introduction to the systems approach to family therapy	3.0
*HD 5514 Research Methods	Introduction to MFT research and to quantitative methods	3.0
Elective Course (if desired)	HD 5724 Couples Therapy	3.0
Year One – Spring Semester 2019
*HD 5434 Clinical Marriage and Family Therapy I (Structural and Strategic Approaches)	Prepares students with an orientation to structural & strategic and other MFT theoretical models as well as an orientation to basic clinical skills	3.0
*HD 6514 Advanced Research Methods	Continues HD 5514 with a focus on qualitative methods	3.0
*HD 5424 Lifespan Development (offered every Spring semester)	This course acquaints students with human and family development across the lifespan	3.0
End of First Year
Comprehensive Exams	Demonstration of satisfactory mastery of MFT basic theory and basic research competence
Screening and Admission to Clinical Component	Students must pass comprehensive exams and must submit a letter to the clinical director requesting entrance
Thesis	Students start to formulate research questions for potential thesis topics over the Summer

Year Two – Summer Semester 2019
Elective Course (if desired)	HD 5744 Children & Adolescents	3.0
HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Depending on the number of Clinic slots available, summer entry may be an option	1.0-3.0
Year Two – Fall Semester 2019
*HD 5734 Marriage and Family Therapy Techniques	Acquaints the students with fundamental skills and obligations of the therapist	3.0
*HD 5344 Perspectives on Human Sexuality	This course covers human sexual functioning, sexual dysfunction, and basic sex therapy	3.0
*HD 5444 Clinical Marriage and Family Therapy II: Postmodern Approaches	Address postmodern approaches and the spiritual dimension in therapy	3.0
*HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Students begin to see clients in the clinic	1.0-3.0
Year Two – Spring Semester 2020
*HD 5454 Clinical Marriage and Family Therapy IV: Domestic Violence/Substance Abuse	This course covers basic assessment and treatment of substance abuse and domestic violence.	3.0
*HD 5474 Professional Seminar in Marriage and Family Therapy	This course covers the AAMFT Code of Ethics, legal issues in practice, and self-care of the therapist	3.0
*HD 5474 Professional Seminar in Marriage and Family Therapy (Ethics)	This course covers the AAMFT Code of Ethics, legal issues in practice, and self-care for the therapist	3.0
Elective Course (if desired)	HD 5744 Group Therapy
*HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Students continue to see clients in the clinic	1.0-3.0
End of Second Year
Clinical Off-site Internship	Students have the option of starting a clinical off-site internship at the end of their second year

Year Three – Summer 2020
*HD 5744 Children and Adolescents	This course covers the basics of therapists working with children and adolescents	3.0
*HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Students continue to see clients in the clinic	1.0-3.0
Elective Course (if desired)	Special Topics in MFT	3.0
Year Three – Fall Semester 2020
*HD 5744 Multicultural Issues in Marriage and Family Therapy	This course addresses self-awareness and the sensitivity to multicultural issues.	3.0
*HD 5734 Marriage and Family Therapy Techniques	Acquaints the students with fundamental skills and obligations of the therapist	3.0
Elective Course (if desired)	Special Topics in MFT
*HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Students continue to see clients in the clinic	1.0-3.0
Year Three – Spring Semester 2021
*HD 5454 Clinical Marriage and Family Therapy III: Diagnosis and Treatment in the Family Context	This course covers psychopathology, the DSM system of diagnosis, and the effects of various psychiatric disorders on the family system.	3.0
*HD 5424 Lifespan Development (if requirement not met in Spring 1 or 2)	This course acquaints students with human and family development across the lifespan	3.0
Elective Course (if desired)	HD 5744 Family Stress and Crisis Intervention and Trauma Informed Care HD Play Therapy
*HD 5964 Practicum in MFT	Students continue to see clients in the clinic	1.0-3.0
End of Third Year
Course Completions	Complete all required courses and acquire 51-54 credit hours
Client Contact Hours	500 direct client contact hours earned while completing a minimum of 9 practicum hours
Thesis (or clinical project)	6 research and thesis credits (HD 5994) and Thesis defense, must be completed before graduation

Required Courses	Elective Courses
*HD 5404 Systems Theory and Family Therapy	HD 5724 Couples Therapy
*HD 5514 Research Methods	HD 5744 Internal Family Systems Theory
*HD 6514 Advanced Research Methods	HD 5744 Psychotherapy with Children & Adolescents
*HD 5734 Marriage and Family Therapy Techniques	HD 5744 Play Therapy
*HD 5744 Multicultural Family Therapy	HD 5744 Family Stress and Crisis Intervention and Trauma Informed Care
*HD 5424 Life Span Development
*HD 5344 Perspectives in Human Sexuality
*HD 5474 Professional Seminar Marriage & Family Therapy (Ethics)
*HD 5434 Clinical Marriage & Family Therapy I (Structural and Strategic Approaches)
*HD 5444 Clinical Marriage & Family Therapy II (Postmodern Approaches)
*HD 5454 Clinical Marriage & Family Therapy III (Diagnosis and Treatment in a Family Context)
*HD 5484 Clinical Marriage & Family Therapy IV (Substance Abuse/Domestic Violence)	